WS/SO40/11	Rowan House Meadow	SO477031	0.39 ha	Neutral Grassland	Species-Rich Grassland (HAP)	A neglected meadow with a variety of semi-improved neutral grassland indicators scattered occasionally - frequently throughout. Conopodium majus is particularly noticeable throughout the sward and Centaurea nigra, Lotus corniculatus and Ranunculus bulbosus are occasional. A small patch of Lady's Mantle is also present. The vegetation is rather rank in places and tall, tussocky grasses are a frequent feature across the site. The site is situated in a largely residential context with houses to its immediate south, east and west. Llanishen Hill Meadows (cWS) lies to the west of the site with a diverse sward that includes Dactylorhiza fuchsii. The site has a moderate north facing slope and is surrounded by managed hedgerow, and a line of conifers at its western margin.	H4 Neutral Grasslands
