WS/SO50/91	Ty Mawr Convent (Plum Orchard)	SO508078	0.06 ha		Veteran tree & traditional orchards	This is a very small orchard surrounded/hidden by trees/hedge, part of which has been historically laid. It is stock-proof from surrounding sheep grazed pasture through the provision of wire fencing and there is evidence of old, fallen drystone walling. The floor of the orchard is grassy and is allowed to grow tall and then apparently trimmed. The orchard comprises solely of Plum (it is officially called the Plum Orchard). The Plum trees are a mix of ages/sizes (some are quite old and have veteran tree features whereas others are young sprouting trees (with a range of age/size inbetween)). Dead wood and stumps are left in situ.	H2) Parklands, Orchards and Veteran Trees – (Orchards)
